The Library Environmental Policy

The Library has a strong commitment & vision of eco-sustainability. From the outset, the building presented a unique opportunity to 'recycle' a magnificent piece of history & restore it to its former glory. The Library's purchasing criteria is based on environmental policies, fair trade & sustainability practices of its suppliers. With a predominantly organic menu incorporating seasonal & local produce, The Library provides a portal to communicate the story of businesses & individuals who have embraced organic living & are on a journey of eco-sustainability. The objective is not only to promote & support likeminded people & businesses but also to encourage others to follow.

Vegetable-based inks, recycled paper, environmentally friendly packaging & consumables, organic &/or bio-degradable products have been utilised where possible. Disposable items are used sparingly & bio-degradable products are used where appropriate including bin liners, plates & cutlery. Cleaning & washing products are non-toxic with alcohol free soaps & sanitisers available in the bathroom, kitchen & dining areas.

Over the past two years we have helped over 50 families celebrate their child's birthdays including our own son, Jackson. The overwhelming response from parents is that it is so nice to be in an environment they feel relaxed and comfortable. They also comment on the healthy but delicious food that the children devour (minus the excessive colourings and additives). As a Mum with a child with food allergies it has been a huge relief to have Jackson's food prepared safely for both his own birthday parties and ones he has attended at the cafe. We even order a kids party pack for him to take to other parties – just to be sure it is safe. This year we celebrate Jackson's 5th birthday at a venue away from the cafe but we purposely chose somewhere we could self-cater (& guess who is doing the catering!). Whether you are looking for a party venue, out-catering or even a special party treats pack made with TLC – The Library Cafe can help. Debbie Leaver March 2010.
